Non-Partisans Organizing in City for Mitchel
and Party

enough in O'Leary and in O'Leary's friends to protest against the seizure of von Igel's papers, which disclosed O'Leary's connection with German plots, Furthermore, Jeremiah O'Leary's relative is now helping to conduct Judge Hylan's campaign.

Murphy's "Million"

Business Men's League Aids in Drive in Present Regime

'swing to Mitchel" at this time, in the epinion of the Fusion campaign managers, is the effective organizations of independent voters which are rapidly crystallizing. Outside of the drive in the Republican organization, which is in the district as far as possible and to talk to as many men as possible personally. Independent groups are also pushing the campaign in labor circles the leadership of Timothy Healy and George T. McGuire, vice-president of the State Federation of Labor. Labor men are particularly worked up over the attempts to discredit the Gary schools by calling them a capitalistic scheme directed against the working-

Business League Aiding Drive

The Mitchel League of Greater New York, an organization chiefly of business and professional men, is aiding in the drive for the independent voter. This committee has formed sub-committees made up of men representing nearly every profession and business in the city, who are doing personal work among the men in their particular lines.

"It is an uprising of the individual," sald Emory R. Buckner, general campaign manager. "The average citizen has been thinking the situation over quietly, until now he is no longer quiet about it. He is telling his friends what bout it. He is telling his friends what e thinks of the idea of having for layor a man with a past like Hylan's.

hey decide to do something about it, he result is that they begin getting lightly begin getting last night gave him the warmest greetlightly beging strictly to his schedule in spite lightly beging strictly begins strictly begin way by the thousands."

The statement of Charles F. Murphy that Henry Morgenthau and other active Mitchel campaign workers had raised a fund of $1,000,000 caused amusement among the leaders at the Mitchel Fusion headquarters yesterday.

They declared that if Mr. Murphy knew of any such fund they wished he would
of any such fund they wished he would of any such fund they mished he would of the park. He asserted that, in direct contradiction of Judge Hylan's charges that the purchase price was exorbitant, he had appealed the award exorbitant, he had appealed the award Mitchel Fusion headquarters yesterday. They declared that if Mr. Murphy knew of any such fund they wished he would "lead them to it." Mr. Morgenthau. William Hamlin Childs, chairman of the executive committee of the Fusion Committee of 1917; Mr. Buckner and Sam Lewisohn, treasurer of the Fusion Committee, all emphatically denied any knowledge of such a generous fund.

Murphy Estimate Too Large

Treasurer Lewisohn said that he had Treasurer Lewisonn said that he may received about 3,500 subscriptions, ranging from $1 to $100, but couldn't tell just what the total amount was. Mr. Childs declared that he didn't know just how much had been raised, but that it was "not nearly as much as was needed."

Mayor Mitchel was pleased yesterday to hear that Mr. Murphy had taken the "muzzle" from Judge Hylan, the Tammany candidate, and given him per-mission "to talk to the public." The Mayor was hopeful that the public soon Mayor was hopeful that the public soon would learn the answers to the questions which have remained unanswered by Judge Hylan for three weeks. The Tammany candidate's answers would be awaited with a great deal of interest, the Mayor said.

Fearful, however, that Judge Hylan might not answer all the questions that the Mayor and others had asked him, the Mayor restrates undertook to sur-

the Mayor yesterday undertook to sug-gest what some of his answers might be, particularly in regard to what apbe, particularly in regard to what up-pointments to the heads of the various city departments the Tammany candi-date might make if elected. "If elected, who will be Judge Hy-lan's Pelice Commissioner?" asked the lan's Police Commissioner: asked the Mayor. "Will it be Edgar A. Whitney, who has placed Judge Hylan under obli-gations by coming forward with an affi-davit in Judge Hylan's defence? dayt in Judge Hylan's defence; Whitney stands out in the present campaign as a man who knows what a Murphy police force ought to be. He is the man who confessed to Justice Jerome that he was a go-between for Wardman Glennon, of the Devery police force, and notified Glennon when-

Murphy police force ought to be. He is the man who confessed to Justice Jerome that he was a go-between for Wardman Glennon, of the Devery police force, and notified Glennon whenever the Parkhurst Society intended to raid a gambling joint or a disorderly house which was under the protection of the police.

"Who will be Judge Hylan's City Chamberlain, to have on deposit with in and the care of the vast funds of the vast funds of the care of the ca

and Party

Irphy's "Million"

Amuses Opponents

iness Men's League

relative is now helping to conduct Judge Hylan's campaign.
"Who will be Judge Hylan's Commissioner of Street Cleaning? Will it be John Devoy, who is equally solicitons with O'Leary in Judge Hylan's behalf, and who was implicated with O'Leary in the von Igel papers? Surely, Devoy, O'Leary and Hearst, who are now working together in the Hylan cause, should not be separated after election.

'Who will be Judge Hylan's Dock Commissioner? Will it be Mr. Murphy?
Mr. Hearst would probably object to this appointment if he feels today as he felt in 1911, when he declared that Murphy as Dock Commis-The most convincing evidence of a single gave the ice trust what it asked for in the way of docks. As Dock Commissioner, he disposed of dock privileges, just as to-day he disposes of Supreme Court judgeships."

Predicts Battle Over Spoils

beginning to loom large for Mr.
Mitchel, the "silent vote" throughout the city is organizing.

Based on the first sign of the unusual interest of the independents in the campaign, seen in the large registration, the Mitchel managers have been dependent uncertainty uncertainty uncertainty to roughly seed to the reduce the division of the spoision. If Mr. Murphy comes out on top, Murphy's favorite leaders would receive consideration after Judge Hylan had discharged his personal obligations. Should Mr. Hearst prove the stronger, the Tammany leaders would be a buttle royal over the division of the spoision. If Mr. Murphy comes out on top, Murphy's favorite leaders would receive consideration after Judge Hylan had discharged his personal obligations. Should Mr. Hearst prove the stronger, the Tammany leaders would be a buttle royal over the division of the spoision.

devoting unceasing labors to rounding up this vote in every Assembly district of the city. New committees under the Mitchel League have been forming every day, and yesterday saw the first meeting of the Mitchel Personal Campaign Committee at the Hotel Manhattan.

This committee is composed of independents from every walk of life. Comprehensive plans were made for direct personal work during the remainder of the campaign.

In every election district small non-partisan groups are being formed to marchers.

German propaganda in this city, the Mayor declared.

Arrangements are well under way for the big Fusion torchlight parade for the big Fusion torchlight parade for the big Fusion torchlight parade straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight cated six times, as there will be six marching columns converging on Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden. The old-fashioned straight of the Fusion rally in Madison Square Garden

The Fusion Committee yesterday announced the dates for four of Colonel Roosevelt's campaign speeches. He will speak on October 29 at Sulzer's Casino, and also at the Palace Casino, 14 East 135th Street; on November 1 he will speak at the rally at Madison Square Garden, and go to Ridgewood for a second speech that night. The fifth engagement has not yet been settled. Charles Edward Russell, leader of the American Socialists who have repudiated their party because of its un-American attitude, will speak from the same platform with Mayor Mitchel to-morrow night at the New Star Casino, in Harlem.

Mitchel Defies Doctor And Carries Fight to Hylan's Strongholds

Mayor Mitchel last night undertook that he intended to depend for votes mously announced that it is still runthe most arduous speaking tour of the chiefly on his opposition to prolonging ning the schools of the city and does Coney Island and various parts of Brooklyn, and finally, his voice worn perilously near to speechlessness, he carried the fight into the heart of the Tammany and Hylan strongholds of broklyn at his two last meetings.

of his throat ailment. They approved The independents are coming in in this of his fiery, though husky, attacks corbitant, he had appealed the award granted by the appraising commission, and had had $500,000 cut from this award.

"That is the favor that my administration did to the owners of the property," said the Mayor, "and that is the extent of the truth of the malicious slanders and lies that have been uttered by Judge Hylan and his friends in this campaign concerning my connection with the Dreamland purchase."

Large turnouts of Home Defence Leaguers were present at all of the meetings last night and joined in the cheering. Before entering the third meeting place, the Exempt Firemen's Hail, at Bay Ridge Avenue and Third Avenue, Mayor Mitchel consulted with his advisers, including Commissioner of Licenses Bell, and decided to continue the votes were taken at the entrance of the Brooklyn Bridge and at a prominent downtown restaurant frequented by business men. Out of a total of, 1293 votes Mr. Bennett received 109, Mayor Mitchel 202, Mr. Hylan 368 and Mr Hillquit 614, or almost as much as the three other candidates combined. Launching into his protest against prolonging the war, Mr. Hillquit, advensue, described the forthcoming election as virtually a referendum on the war.

"While the vast majority of people in this country are opposed to the war not one political party has had the courage to proclaim opposition to it, Hillquit, "That explains the great the socialist party," said Mr.

A Handy Man Around the House

Hillquit Predicts He'll Win on Vote Opposed to War

Says Socialist Victory Here Will Be Heard Around the World

proval when Morris Hillquit, Socialist candidate for Mayor, speaking at four meetings in Yorkville and the East Side last night, again made it plain that he intended to depend for votes mously announced that it is still runtill, former president of the board, objected strenuously to the mously announced that it is still runtill, former president of the board, objected strenuously to the mously announced that it is still runtill, former president of the board, objected strenuously to the mously announced that it is still runtill, former president of the board, objected strenuously to the mously announced that it is still runtill former president of the board, objected strenuously to the mously announced that it is still runtill former president of the board, objected strenuously to the mously announced that it is still runtill former president of the board, objected strenuously to the mously announced that it is still runtill former president of the board, objected strenuously to the mously announced that it is still runtill former president of the board, objected strenuously to the mously announced that it is still runtill former president of the board, led by Thomas Charles and the present former of the mously announced that it is still runtill former president of the board, led by Thomas Charles and the present former of the mously announced that it is still runtill former president of the board, objected strenuously to the mously announced that it is still runtill former president of the board, objected strenuously to the mously announced that it is still runtill former president of the board, objected strenuously to the mously announced that it is still runtill former president of the board of the board of the mously announced that it is still runtill former president of the board of the bo

But before last night's audiences he prosecuted under the described what he called "the panicky education lay feeling of all the other parties in the face of the tremendous growth of the Socialist sentiment."

Votes Taken at Brooklyn Bridge

The votes were taken at the entrance

School Strikers Face Expulsion; Rain Halts Renewal of Trouble

Board of Education Gives Superintendent Summary Power to Handle Youthful Malcontents and Objectors to Gary System

The youthful apostles of discontent has been accumulating "indicating who have been directing the recent systematic propaganda directed osten sibly against the 'Gary' plan, but it Fully 10,000 persons voiced their ap- strikes in the so-called Gary schools

For the first time in his campaign give the city Superintendent of give the city Superintendent of the campaign of the city Superintendent of the compulsory of the city Superintendent of the campaign of the city Superintendent of the campaign of the city Schools the right to expel or suspend of the schools and lead to poor citizenship. The compulsory of the city Superintendent of the whims and farcies of discovering the city Schools the right to expel or suspend of the schools and lead to poor citizenship. The city Superintendent of the whims and farcies of discovering the city Superintendent of the whims and farcies of discovering the city Superintendent of the whims and farcies of discovering the city Superintendent of the whims and farcies of discovering the city Superintendent of the whims and farcies of discovering the city Superintendent of the whims and farcies of discovering the city Superintendent of the whims and farcies of discovering the city Superintendent of the whims and farcies of discovering the city Superintendent of the whims and farcies of discovering the city Superintendent of the whims and farcies of discovering the city Superintendent of the whims and farcies of discovering the city Superintendent of the whims and farcies of discovering the city Superintendent of the schools and lead to poor citizenship. The city Superintendent of the schools and lead to poor citizenship. The city Superintendent of the schools and lead to poor citizenship. The city Superintendent of the schools and lead to poor citizenship. The city Superintendent of the schools and lead to poor citizenship. The city Superintendent of the schools and lead to poor citizenship. The city Superintendent of the schools and lead to poor citizenship. The city Superintendent of the schools and lead to poor citizenship. The city Superintendent of the schools and lead to poor citizenship. The city Superintendent of the schools and lead to poor citizenship. The city Superintendent of the schools and lead to poor citizenship. The city Superintendent of the schools and lead to poor citizenship. The c Mr. Hillquit quoted figures which he Schools the right to expel or suspend construed as showing that he would any student sixteen or older who has tiously avoided making sanguine and that younger pupils who walked out unqualified predictions of a victory. were to be regarded as truants and

While the school authorities were erating, the restless students, threatened to have 5,000 high of the schools instead of to discipline deliberating, the restless students, typical "of the growing losses from the ranks of the old parties," were based on a straw vote taken by a newspaper. This source, Mr. Hillquit said, was not in sympathy with the Socialist cause. terday, were quiet. The rainstorm in the forenoon and the fact that the Later, when John Martin, of the the forenoon and the fact that the students had a half holiday to celebrate Liberty Day interfered with their plans to have a "monster demonstration" against the long day. The attendance was almost normal in all the high schools except De Witt Clinton by the board would be for ultrior ton, where 400 boys were out. In the ton, where 400 boys were out. In the Gary schools conditions were reported satisfactory by the principals.

After William G. Willcox, president of the Board of Education, told the because I am just as stupid as the rest them." Mr. Churchill denied that he are not to be published in pamphlet form.

Penalty Is Fixed

Thompson Balks

an added cross before the name of Mitchel below it. Mr. Bennett declared that the men who did this not only repeated their votes but disfranchised for such work are now interviewing mothers, teachers, principals and the children themselves in a search for

The result of their investigation will make intensely interesting reading. A big story in the

Oct. 28th

Sunday Tribune =

One Fit for Office, Hylan Declares

Tammany Candidate Invades Upper Manhattan and The Bronx

However, both factions agreed or Walter Gilpatric's resolution which fixed the penalty for strikers. "To cater to the whims and fancies of dis-

The 22d Assembly District, of which Thomas F. McAvoy, father of John V. Supreme Court, is leader, received the began the night at Corrigan's Hall, Dr. Caroline Spencer, of Colorado, who went to jail with Miss Paul for the Public School 11, on Ogden Avenue.

Hecklers Are Absent

Not a heckler appeared to ruffle the judge. His audiences appeared to be willing to overlook the flatness of the read speech, and in every instance gave Mr. Hylan great applause when he said, in referring to gunmen, that "what gunmen now remain in New York can be found in Mr. Mitchel's political camp as active workers there."

In his address Judge Hylan reiterited his charge that the administraerated his charge that the administra-tion surrendered the schools to "Rocke-feller" by the adoption of the Gary

Mitchel Not Only

By BRIGGS

Among those who will visit Mr. Wilson this afternoon are Mrs Whitehouse, Mrs. James Lees Laidlaw, Mrs. John Blair, Mrs. Charles Noel Edge, Mrs. John Purroy Mitchel, Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, Mrs. Ogden Reid, Mrs. Marcus M. Marks, Mrs. William H. Wadhams, Mrs. Henry Moskowitz, Mrs. V. G. Simkhovitch, Mrs. Henry Bruere, Mrs. Richard Billings, Dr. S. Josephine Baker, Dr. Katharine B. Davis, Miss Mary Dreier, Mrs. William G. Straight, Mrs. William G. Willeox, Miss Lillian Wald. Mrs. Herbert Pratt, Mrs. Ernest Poole, Mrs. Victor Morawetz, Mrs. V. Everit Macy and Dean Virginia Gildersleeve.

Judge John F. Hylan invaded upper Manhattan and The Bronx last night, attacking Mayor Mitchel's "monopoly of fitness for the office of Mayor" before approximately 3,500 persons at six meetings. The Tammany candidate for Mayor again read his speech as "a preagainst the Rockefeller-Mitchel subsidized press misquoting

Alice Paul Expected

To Go on Hunger Strike

Wants To Be Treated as

Political Prisoner

workhouse rioting of a few weeks ago

seven months' term, paid her fine to-day and was freed. Dr. Spencer abandoned the jail sentence to carry the militants' story to the country.

Progressives Ask Court to Prohibit Use of Emblem

As Moose Exposed

Tiger's Masquerade

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.-Militants

Militants' Leader, in Jail, McAvoy, Tammany candidate for the washingfon, Oct. 24.—Militants of the Woman's party sprang another coup to-day when they announced that Alice Paul, their national chairman, doing seven months in jail here for picketing the White House, would demand to be treated as a "political prisoner." Their announcement contained the significant addition that "what measures he will take to secure such treatment. most attention from Judge Hylan. He 157th Street and Broadway, spoke at Healy's Restaurant, 145th Street and Broadway, under the auspices of the Audubon Club, and wound up at a meeting of the Business Men's League she will take to secure such treatment are not known." Officials, with recollections of the

In The Bronx the cordial reception he received in Mr. McAvoy's district was repeated when the judge appeared. His biggest meeting was at the McKinley Square Casino, where he was cheered for fully a minute. The other meetings were at Mueller's Casino, 154th Street and Third Avenue, and Bablis School II on Ogden Avenue.

Learners were present at all of the menting. He for earthing the cutter of the limit of the country are opposed to the war work of the limit of the

W. B. Dinsmore, Adrift

In Raging Gale, Is Saved

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Oct. 24.—
When his power yacht, in which he had crossed the Hudson River from Staatsburgh, was wrenched adrift in a terrific gale to-day, William B. Dinsmore, millionaire resident of New York, was rescued from drowning by a tugboat's crew, after he had been buffetted about in a helpless condition for several hours.

Mr. Dinsmore left Staatsburg wharf to inspect some submarine chasers at a nearby shipyard.

Statel and St. Trendergast on eight accounts. The Mayor and Controller have, according to the resolution, "surrendered thouse to the is not determined to wait until after election, and if by any chance Swand crossed the Hudson River from Staatsburg whether have also, the board says, conspired with the New York Central and have squandered the taxes and overburdened by the taxpayers.

It is also charged in the resolution office. If Ransom wins, Whitman and the separed the trouble; but if Swand wins, Whitman can get the office, applied that they are in league with these intended in all departments of the city government. "the selfish Rockefeller influences, which have extended, in all departments of the city government. "the selfish Rockefeller influences, which have also, the board says, conspired with the New York Central and have of the taxpayers.

It is also charged in the resolution. "surrendered the self-ty of the resolution, "surrendered the is not determined to wait until after election, and if by any chance Swand construction of tremove him then on these schould be reelected, whether he wealthy election, and if by any chance Swand construction in the is not determined to wait until after the self-ty office. It also charged in the resolution, "surrendered the taxes and overburdened with the New York Central and have charged in the self-ty office. If Ransom wins, Whitman can get the founds. The self-ty office is the same than the provided that the provide in the is not determined to wait until after the self-ty office. If Ransom wins,

News of Suffrage Wilson To See

Along Coast New York Party Leaders To-day Long Island, Staten Island

Committee Hopes for Message from President Tremendous Seas Favoring Cause

One hundred women of New York Many Small Vessels Sunk City and State left the Pennsylvania Station last night for Washington, at Anchorage; Board. whence they hope to bring back this afternoon sufficient ammunition to walks Torn Away make their campaign for votes this fall successful.

The President himself is expected to supply this ammunition. Mr. Wilson will meet the committee, headed by Mrs. Norman de R. Whitehouse, at the White House this afternoon. He is expected to deliver a message for the voters of New York.

Suffrage leaders expect this message to have a vital effect in swinging New York State for suffrage. In several letters the President already has written he has expressed himself as entirely favorable to their cause.

It is hoped that now, when the campaign is reaching its climax, he will say something that will urge voters

Gale Causes

Great Damage

and Jersey Suffer From Storm

Batter Bungaiows

all neighboring towns fronting on the Atlantic came reports of boats driver say something that will urge voters even more strongly to cast their balashore, bungalows shattered by break ers and sea walls and boardwalks broken to pieces by the pounding of lots for equal franchise.

Ever since the women began their fight this year they have hoped that the Chief Executive might be able to Pushed from behind by the gale, the come and deliver an address in favor of votes for women. For obvious rea-sons, however, it has been impossible waters of the Atlantic banked up on the shores, and at high tide ro Rain and wind were directly ac-countable for enormous damage. Much was wreaked by the high tide.

the enormous seas.

the invitation for the committee of New York suffrage leaders to visit him New York suffrage leaders to visit him was unsolicited.

It is believed that he will express his hope of victory in no uncertain terms in the message to be given the women this afternoon.

"There can be but little doubt," said Mrs. Whitehouse just before the party left last night, "as to the President's views on suffrage at this time. Both the state and national organizations have had messages from him which leave no doubt as to his desire that suffrage will win in New York State. But we are sure that after this conference there will be no voter left in New York who is not entirely assured of President Wilson's suffrage convictions."

The tide, however, swept in so gradually that dwellers in bungalows and estages had plenty of time to escape.

At Brighton Beach the boardwil was flooded and badly damaged, 8 high was the tide that the seas lend over the sea wall at the foot of the course and buried a large area under several feet of water.

Damage in Staten Island

All along the Staten Island shore the same story of destruction was re-peated. At Great Kills twelve syster boats and four yachts were driven ashore. Inhabitants of forty cottages at Crescent Beach were driven out by the ocean, which came in through the workhouse rioting of a few weeks ago and visions of possibly a hunger strike, wondered what to expect.

Dr. Caroline Spencer, of Colorado, who went to jail with Miss Paul for the all day for fear they might be driven.

At Hempstead, L. I., the Rainbow Di-At Hempstead, L. I., the Rainbow Division at Camp Mills suffered its first aerial bombardment. When the attack of the wind and rain ended it was found that 300 tents had been knocked flat. Ten of these belonged to the hospital corps. Patients were carried to the barracks of the aviation corps. The large military garage at the north of the camp also collapsed.

Flushing Bay Suffers

The shores of Flushing Bay and the breakwater were strewed last night by Whether the Progressive party chooses to make use of its Bull Moose emblem or not, its officials are not going to permit others to trade upon its pressive. Through an order issued yesterday by Institute 1980 and the progressive party the debris of small boats and launches. Many other craft sank at their inchanges. At North Beach more that $100,000 worth of boats were driven ashore.

preservers, sterpicked up by coast guards at Asbuff Park. As far as could be learned as such vessel had been reported is trouble along the coast.